MOD STAIRWELL

A photograph of an empty stairwell with white walls and a concrete floor. The space is enclosed by walls on three sides, with the fourth side being an open doorway. The floor shows some signs of wear and discoloration.

WITHOUT DOOR

A photograph of the same stairwell, but now with a white, six-panel door installed in the doorway. The door is slightly ajar, revealing a glimpse of the area beyond. The floor is covered with a patterned rug.

WITH DOOR

A photograph of the stairwell featuring a white, solid half-wall (balustrade) running along the side. The wall is smooth and modern, contrasting with the older floor. The floor is covered with a patterned rug.
